

Star Bright Entertainers

Perform Well

16 Jan 1986 Wave

Ever wondered how it would be to see your three to fifteen year-old on stage doing singing and dancing routines with other budding performers? Star Bright Entertainers is doing just that with kids from local neighborhoods.

One of the "Stars" is only two years old, but she keeps up with four, eight, and thirteen year olds just fine as she sings, dances and uses props in unison with other students in the group. She did a terrific job as Rudolph while her sister performed gladly as Cupid, another Reindeer in the song.

Debbie Rudd instructs 16 students in classes of small number in order to teach them such an elaborate program that gained such comments as: "your group is so enthusiastic!" "They know their words so well and to put such staging in a group of this age!" "They are so professional!"

Adorned in red, white and black some of the students have performed already. Programs including the special addition Santa Claus Train on the Heber Creeper, Christmas programs at Midway and Central Elementary schools and Wasatch County Hospital employee party.

Star Bright Entertainers has already scheduled programs for the spring including an annual snow party, 49th Street Galleria and Lagoon.

As director of Star Bright Entertainers may I offer a GREAT BIG THANK YOU. Wasatch County has been so receptive to our little stars and so generous with compliments. THANK YOU for welcoming us to Heber Valley.

If you have a Star in your home or a group or organization that needs good entertainment for an upcoming gathering let us know! Call Debbie Rudd at 654-0258.

Local Youth Compete in State Festival

by Melanie Burton 24 Feb 1988

Wasatch High School recently had the opportunity to send eight fine vocalists to the All State Honor Choir Festival held in St. George. This unique opportunity was provided to only 100 of the many student vocalists throughout the state vying for the chance to attend this festival.

Dan Dummer, Paul Moulton, Brian Luke, Darren Glather, Lynette Broadbent, Carrie Bluth, Angela Edwards, and Tonya Berg worked very hard in preparation for the festival. Ben Dummer directed and gave needed support to this group at the rehearsals held prior to the festival.

The Dixie College hosted the festival. The vocalists were enthusiastically directed by the University of Utah's Dr. John Cooksey, a national leading authority on the changing voice. The group spent six grueling hours perfecting the quality of their voices and performance techniques.

The songs the group performed for several music educators in the state included, "When The Trumpet Sounds," "Lord, I Trust Thee," "Carlos Dominguez," and "No e Temp."

Paul Moulton was recognized as the best bass vocalist at the festival, and Darren Glather was recognized as the second best bass vocalist.

The students reported that the trip was a lot of fun, besides being a tremendous opportunity to develop their musical abilities.

Region IX Choral Festival Held

by Melanie Burton

24 Feb 1988

As Gerard once stated, "No age or time of life, no position or circumstance, has a monopoly on success. Any age is the right age to start doing."

This statement proved correct on Feb. 19 when Wasatch High School hosted the Region IX Choral Festival. The Lehi, Morgan, Park City, American Fork, and Wasatch High Schools each performed choice selections that exemplified their musical success as a choir.

The festival participants were enlightened by the suggestions of Colleen Harris, a vocal instructor at BYU, and Dr. Clayne Robison, chairman of the vocal department at BYU. The choirs were given tips to strengthen breath support, enhance tonal quality, and improve articulation.

The Wasatch High School's girls' chorus set the mood for the festival as they performed So Little Time to Give, Follow Rain and River, and The Rose. Union High School followed with Oh, Mary Don't You Weep and On Wings of Song. Park City's solemn Scarborough Fair and Old Irish Blessing provided a nice contrast to the Wasatch men's captivating and entertaining A Whale of a Tale and There is Nothing Like a Dame. Morgan, Lehi, and American Fork's performances left participants and judges astounded by the talent found in Region IX.

Following the Sound Investment's performance of Die Nachtigall (The Nightingale), The Heavens are Telling, The Rhythm of Life and an extremely difficult Chichester Psalm, Dr. Clayne Robison congratulated the group and stated that "all the things that should be happening in a high school choir are happening here."

Several Sound Investment accompanists worked extremely hard to master the difficult pieces performed by the group. These accompanists included Ben Dummar, Meghan Spanos, Melanie Burton, and Carolyn Toronto.

This festival provided those individual vocalists who have already elected to pursue excellence in the field of music, the opportunity to learn and incorporate the skills needed in order to develop their talents to their fullest capacity.

The Choralettes present "Tis The Season" this Saturday, Dec. 10 at 7 p.m. at Wasatch High School. Admission is free, so come and enjoy the Choralettes' Christmas celebration!

Lights on Ceremony at Capitol

Local children with the Sunshine Generation Program, joined over 100 other "Sunshine Kids" from Salt Lake Dec. 5. Along with the violin group "Pinsecatta strings" provided the music for the Lights on Ceremony at the Capitol Rotunda.

Mrs. Bangerter made a special presentation to Rhoda Hansen, who donated the tree. Mrs. Hansen bought the tree in 1962 as an 18-inch sappling. Twenty-six years and 32 feet later, she decided the tree must go, and was happy to see it receive such an honored end. The tree has 4,000 lights.

They appreciate all the efforts of the people behind the scenes, who made this production possible. A special thanks to all the parents who have helped with costumes, advertising, sets, tickets, etc. They also appreciate some of our high school students for donating their time to help: Ben Dummer, the accompanist for the chorus; Rebecca Kinsel, and Heidi Ward, who have helped with the choreography and stage direction.

Plan now to be in attendance. It promises to be an evening of exceptional entertainment.

Children's Chorus Has Talented New Director

6 Sep 1989

Karen Patterson

The best part about Mrs. Patterson is her love for and ability to work with children. She herself wrote, "I bring to the group my enthusiasm for life, music, and drama. I would hope to instill self-confidence in the children through quality learning and quality performance. I would expect the children to bring their best attitude and voice to rehearsal."

Mrs. Karen Patterson will fit in ideally with the quality performances and attitudes that Wasatch Children's Chorus is renown for. She will be under the immediate direction and training of Mr. Brad Thompson as Mr. Thompson focuses his energies into different aspects of children's musical training.

Mrs. Karen Patterson will be directing the honors and the boy's choruses when they begin their season on Thursday, Sept. 14. Their superb director, Ann Moulton, will direct the girl's choruses that will begin on Monday, Sept. 11. Wasatch Children's Chorus is a nonprofit organization for Grades 3 through 6 that is dedicated to building children's self-esteem through music. Anyone who has missed registration or auditions and would like to have this experience for their children, can contact Ronda Rose, President of Children's Chorus at 654-3623, or Kathryn Wright, 654-2317.

The Board of Directors of the Wasatch Children's Chorus is excited and pleased to announce the hiring of the talented and beautiful Mrs. Karen Paulus Patterson as a new director of the Wasatch Children's Chorus for the 1989-90 chorus year.

Mrs. Patterson is bringing to children's chorus a wealth of experience and talent in both music, dance, and drama. Some of her credentials include Clara, (lead) in the Riverside Civic Ballet; Heidi (lead) and Princess (lead) in "Taming of The Shrew," in professional theatre, soloist/ensemble and assistant director of Latter-day Sounds only to name a very few.

Of Mrs. Patterson, Dr. Welsford H. Clark of the BYU Education Department said, "You are so
